Probably The Biggest Scratching Post In The World!

We believe we have found the biggest cat scratching post available today. An enormous pole that can take the punishment from the largest cat. Strong and sturdy.

Total height 74cm

Diameter of post 24cm

Base size 49cmx49cm

Help to stop your furniture and carpets from getting wrecked and also make your cats very happy. They will love it!

It's called the "Fat Boy" by a company called Ancol. It's available at some pet shops – but if you have difficulty sourcing, it can be purchased online on various websites including the following for around £33 including delivery:

Whilst cats are attacking the "Fat Boy", they won't be attacking your furniture or carpets - and what a great conversation piece when friends come round!

Happy scratching!
